3. The UID initiative proposes to develop a comprehensive data base for the entire resident population of the country by the UIDAI by leveraging, in the first instance, the existing data base of various partners such as electoral rolls data base of the Election Commission of India, the BPL data-base of the Ministry of Rural Development, the ration card data base of the Ministry of Consumer Affairs and Public Distribution. As per Government of India notification dated 28/1/2009 the role & responsibilities of UIDAI are as under:-

- A. UIDAI shall have the responsibility to lay down plan and policies to implement UID Scheme, shall own and operate UID database and be responsible for its updation and maintenance on an ongoing basis.
- B. Implementation of UID Scheme will entail, inter alia, following responsibilities being undertaken by UIDAI:
- Generate and assign UID to residents
 - Define mechanisms and processes for interlinking UID with partner databases on a continuous basis
 - Frame policies and administrative procedures related to updation mechanism and maintenance of UID database on an ongoing basis

- Co-ordinate/liaise with implementation partners and user agencies as also define conflict resolution mechanism
- Define usage and applicability of UID for delivery of various services
- Operate and manage all stages of UID lifecycle
- Adopt phased approach for implementation of UID specially with reference to approved timelines
- Take necessary steps to ensure collation of NPR with UID (as per approved strategy)
- Ensure ways for leveraging field level institutions appropriately such as PRIs in establishing linkages across partner agencies as well as its validation while cross linking with other designated agencies
- Evolve strategy for awareness and communication of UID and its usage
- Identify new partner/user agencies
- Issue necessary instructions to agencies that undertake creation of databases, to ensure standardization of data elements that are collected and digitized and enable collation and correlation with UID and its partner databases
- Frame policies and administrative procedures related to hiring/retention/mobilization of resources, outsourcing of various tasks and budgeting & planning for UIDAI and all State units under UIDAI.
